Faculty Advisor ---------- Mr. Bogard

The student senate has been kept this year with many tasks facing them. There were several changes in the student senate, especially noticeable was the decrease in number. After the election of officers, the group began to work earnestly for the welfare and betterment of the high school. One of the first decisions this organizations made was the selection of cheerleaders to support the basketball teams. Along with the student senate sponsored the advanced sales of athletic tickets and held a contest between the four grades in highschool with a refund given to the winning class. The Student Senate has taken an active part in community affairs this year by helping the Kiawanis and the Farm Bureau with a voting booth and directing a tour through the school building during American Education Week. The group also planned and sponsored two all high school parties, several assembly programs with student participation, and the annual ping pong tournaments, featuring mixed doubles for the first time. Special holidays have been remembered by the student senate in the form of assembly programs with outside guests as speakers and by decorating the high school assembly. The Student Senate is an organization that any member can be proud of and is recommended highly by this years members.

Senior Class History of 1953

As Seniors of 1953, we are a happy group of 15 members. We will try and take you on a tour of the lives of our jungle friends through our school years.

In the fall of 1940, Jon Barber, Marilyn Burt, Harry Helgason, Rhea Horswell, Janice Thorson, and Jean O'Neill started Kindergarten as scared little pupils. We all enjoyed our teacher, Miss Lawton.

In first grade, 1941, we were happy to add to our group Eyvona Rae Jensen, and Mary Ellen Peterson. We were all thrilled on our first train ride to Maple Hill, which our teacher, Miss Fear took us on. That was one of the big highlights of that year.

During our second grade year, we added another pupil to our class. This boy is known as Leon Nelson. We had as our teacher this year Miss Skogard. We were getting pretty used to school now and really thought we were progressing.

We had the same class in third grade with Miss Dushinski as our teacher.

Harlan Kinnander was the new addition to our class in fourth grade, with Mrs. Haworth as our teacher.

Miss Johnson was our teacher in fifth grade. During this year we added another new member. This boy had the name of Johnnie Cheever.

Sixth grade marked a new experience for us. This was our first year in Jr. High. We were all scared as could be but got along pretty well guided by Mrs. Slaba, our principal along with Mrs. Haworth and Miss Miller.

In seventh grade we added another new member. This tall boy is known to us as Billy Eisenbacker. We also obtained two new teachers, Mr. Powers and Mr. Campbell.

Eighth Grade marked an important year in our Jr. High life. Donald Looft was a new member this year. We had many important events, one of which was our Eighth Grade banquet. But the most important one that will always remain in our mind is the Eighth Grade Graduation. For graduation we went to Estherville and received our diploma from Mr. Berryhill, Supt. of Schools.

High School was next. We entered as green and mean freshman. The High School principal this year was Miss Sessler. We were so scared we didn't no which way to turn. It seemed to us the upper classmen was shoving us all over. In our freshman year we were able to enter into more activities such as glee club, mixed chorus, Student Senate etc.

We finally made the year and entered into 10th grade or better known as the Sophomore class. We had Mr. Bentz as principal this year.

Our Junior Year was a very exciting one. We got our graduation rings during this year. This was our first experience in Dramatics also. We had a lot of fun putting on the Jr. play entitled "Act Your Age." We also had the great privilege of putting on a dramatic play of "Gray Bread". This play included four of us Junior girls and a promptor. We got to take "Grey Bread" to Drake University at Des Moines to a play festival. We had a lot of fun and received a Excellent rating on it. Another important event of our Junior Year was the Junior and Senior Prom. Our theme for this banquet was "A Garden of Friendship." We worked very hard on this and made it a great success. Mt. Bogard was our principal this year.

Our graduation pictures were the first important event. Shortly after we had these taken we started on our annual. The next event was the one act drama plays. These plays included "Lily," "Broken Rehearsal," and "Balcony Scene." "Balcony Scene" was chosen to go to contest which was held at Bufflo Center. They were very fortunate to get a second rating.

Skip day, which was April 10th, took us to the Ice Follies at Minneapolis, Minnesota. This was the most entertaining event in the lives of the Seniors. Our Class play which was "Drums of Death," This play was presented April 17th and 18th. Our Junior and Senior Prom was also a very memorable event in our lives. The theme of this was "Rose Festival." This was also a very successful banquet and we enjoyed it very much. We sincerely want to thank the Juniors for the very nice banquet.

Baccalareate and Commencement concluded thirteen years of happy school life for the Seniors of 1953.

class prophecy

One for the money
Two for the show
Get ready Seniors
Here we go!

Jon Barber:

Jon delivered,
After school,
He's still at it,
Silly fool!

Marilyn Burt:

Marilyn's a success,
A movie star.
She's getting sick,
On caviar.

John Cheever:

This young man's future,
Really sends.
As you see---
"It all depends."

Billy Eisenbacher:

Billy is famous.
This is no laugh.
As head of---
The army K. P. Staff.

Harry Helgason:

Harry is working,
Not on the side.
He digs ditches,
Extra wide.

Rhea Horswell:

Rhea as a girl
Was never seen,
On a corner
Selling gasoline.

Nancy Hudson:

Studious Nancy
Has taken the cue.
As assistant to Einstein
At Princeton U.

Eyvonna Jensen:

Eyvonna's a champ,
She's got the stuff.
As a lady wrestler,
She's really tough.

Harlin Kinnander:

Musical Harlin,
Has faced the facts.
He's become a solist
With his sax.

Donald Looft:

Donald Looft
Had this sad fate.
He's a busy man,
With a family of eight.

Leon Nelson:

With a squeel and a howl
At a very fast rate.
Leon and his taxi cab
Plow through the Golden Gate.

Jean O'Neill:

Jean made a fortune
In his own way,
As manufacturer of---
Ladies Lingerie.

Mary Ellen Petersen:

Where's the murder?
What's the clue?
Mary Ellen's a detective,
Her nose is too!

Janice Thorsen:

Once a fan,
Then star on the team.
Now coach of Minn. Lakers--
She's really on the beam.

The end of the story
Is sad as can be,
They're taking us off
To cherokee!

the class will of 1953

We, the Seniors of 1953, of the city of Armstrong, of the county of Emmet, of the State of Iowa, the Tall Corn State, being of unsound mind, of weak heart and having but a few short hours to dwell among the horrors of the trials and tribulations of our high school days, and being on the verge of departing for realms unknown, do make, publish, and declare this to be our last will and testament.

I, Jon Barber, will my long curly hair to Eddie Helgason.

I, Marilyn Burt, will my sense of humor and my excess men to Karon Questad to help add to her collection.

I, Billy Eisenbacher, will my heighth to Marie Sandt, whom I think could use it.

I, Rhea Horswell, will my musical ability to Louise Guerdet..singing mostly.

We, Johnnie Cheever and Donald Looft, will our ability to handle women to John Fothergill and Bob Peterson.

I, Harry Helgason, will my masculine build to Janet Thackery.

I, Nancy Hudson, will my quietness to Pistol Pete, better known as Jack Schultz.

I, Janice Hudson, will my black hair to LaDonna Porter to make a beautiful color.

I, Eyvona Jensen, will my big earrings to Marilyn Porter to add to her collection.

I, Jean O'Neill, will my tiny feet to all the Junior Class because there is plenty to go around.

I, Leon Nelson, will my wandering around the school house (and else where) to Jerry Laffey.

I, Mary Ellen Peterson, will my cute freckles and long nose to Judy Kingston.

I, Harlan Kinnander, will my straight A's and my excess weight to Dick Johnson.

I, Janice Thorson, will my ability to play basketball to LaVonne Pederson.

We, Eyvona Jensen and Marilyn Burt, will our sense of humor together and our inseperable friendship to Serle Mitchell and Betty Redhead.

I, Billy Eisenbacher, will my singing ability to Joy Place to help her out.

I, Jon Barber, will all my rings to Jane Cheever to add to her collection.

I, Johnnie Cheever, will my dancing ability to long Jon, Better known as Wayne Hoffmeyer.

I, Rhea Horswell, will my back swing to Bernard Verbrugge to help out.

I, Mary Ellen Peterson, will my long legs and ability to get around fast to Joan Cornwell.

I, Leon Nelson, will my ability to talk my way out of trouble to Roger Larson.

I, Janice Thorson, will my collision insurance to Fretty Walters...just in case he needs it.

I, Harlan Kinnander, will my fast talking and reading to Doris Verbrugge.

I, Donald Looft, will my interests in Ceylon and Blue Earth to Harvey Schroeder.

I, Jean O'Neill, will my corny wise cracks to Bob Schwartz to use in the show and in study hall.

As we leave, we desire to will in addition to the above, our seats by the dark west wall of the assembly to all the Juniors. To the Sophomores and Freshman, we leave our old papers to copy and the secrets of our success.

BASEBALL HEADLINES

With only four lettermen returning this year, the baseball team performed better than expected. We were very fortunate to win the Sectional Tournaments over Ledyard. We were very unfortunate, however, to lose out in the District to Arnolds Park. O'Neill and Scultz shared the mound duties. Schwartz completed the battery behind the plate. Bill Eisenbacher was the surprise of the year for his excellent hittings. Jean O'Neill led the pitching staff with a 3-3 record.

The batting averages were as follows: Donald Looft . 352, Jean O'Neill . 333, Bill Eisenbacher . 321, Bernard Verbrugge . 394. The total games won during the season were 3 and the losses were 4.

BASKETBALL HEADLINES

The Armstrong Tigers had a mediocre season. It was a young team with only four lettermen returning. Sickness plagued the team throughout the year. They were only full strength for about six games. They were lost to Buffalo Center in the finals of the Sectional Tournaments by three points. The players receiving honors during the season were Jack Schultz and Arlo Jones. Both were named to the first all County Team. Wayne Hoffmeyer was given honorable mention. Of the squad, only two will be graduating this year, so we will have a good start for the next year.

The Armstrong girls had what seemed to some people a poor season but when you take into consideration the competition it is self explanatory. The girls worked hard all season and played good ball but just couldn't come out on the right end of the score very often. They showed great improvement during the last part of the season by winning their first game in their sectional, although they lost to Grant in the Semifinals. To wind up the season the girls lost a close one to Lakota, the Conference Champions. During the season the girls were out scored, but were never out fought.

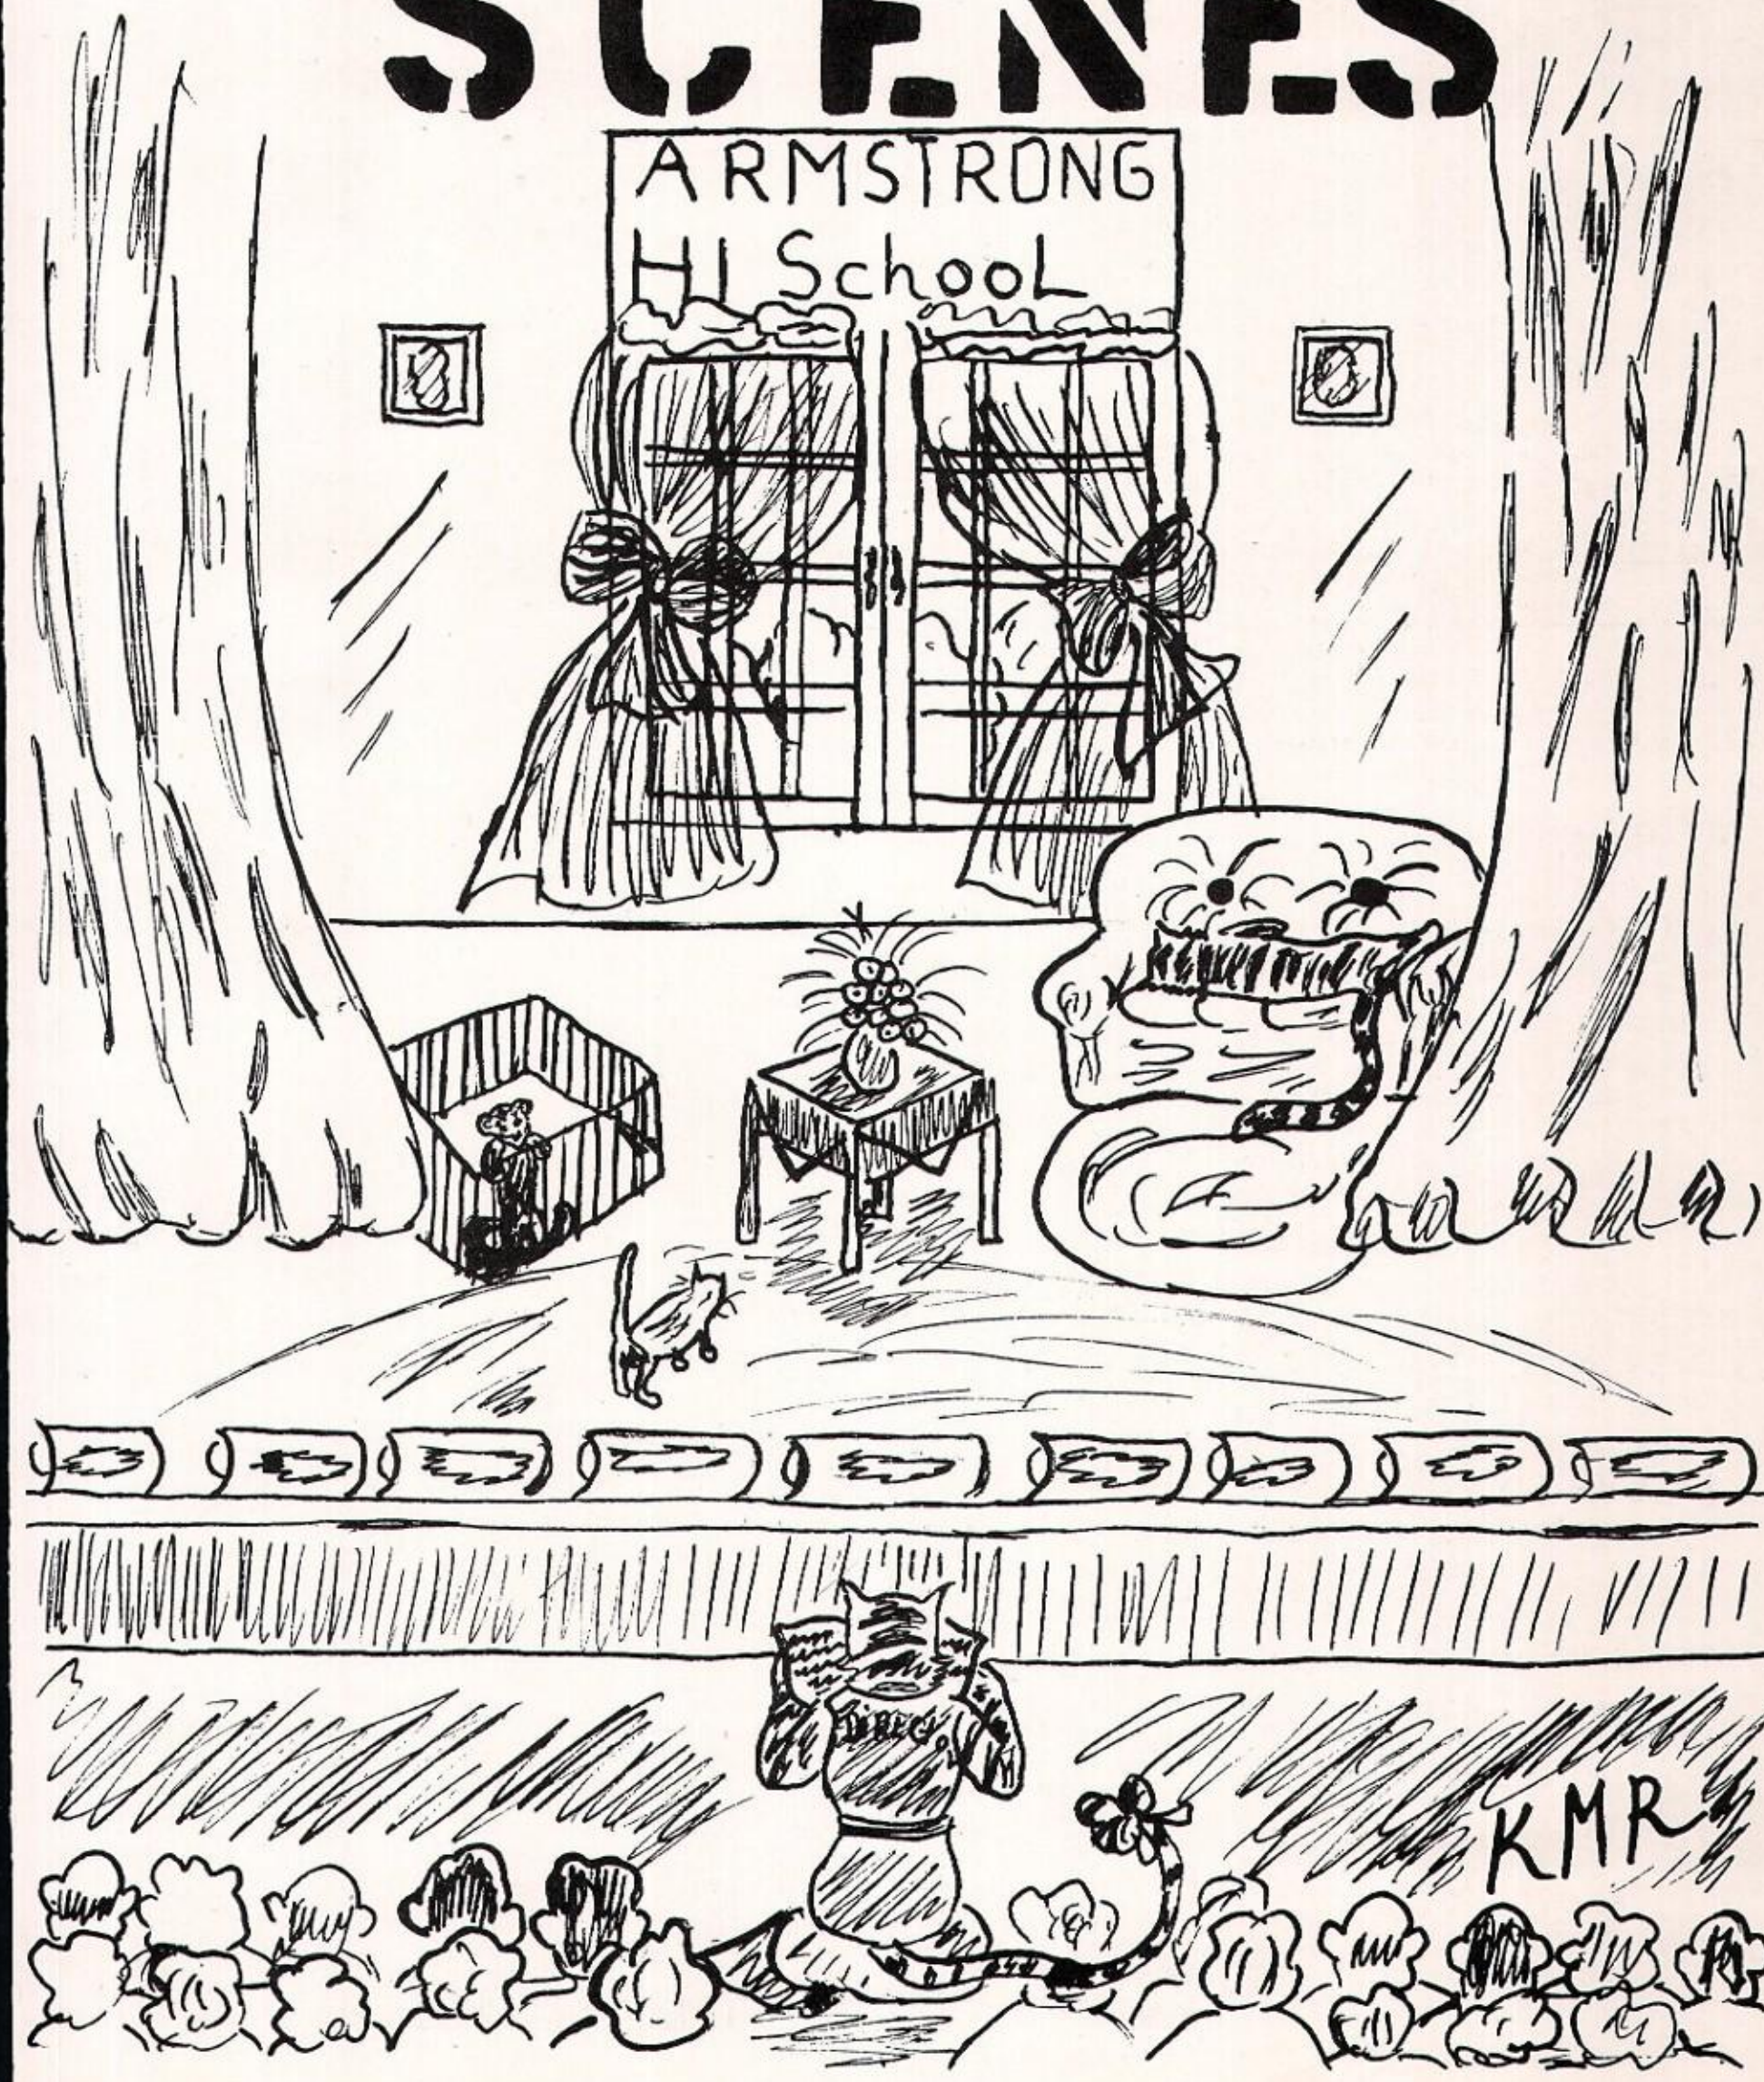
JUNGLE SCENES

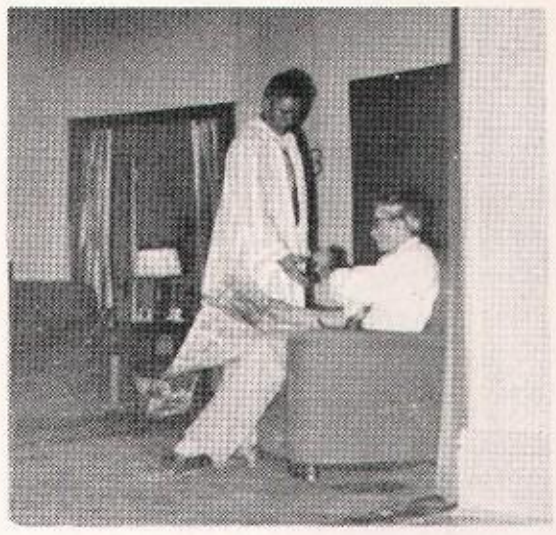


SENIOR PLAY

"DRUMS OF DEATH"

Throbbing drums caught up the heightened heartbeat of the breathless audience, and provided a sinister background for the shrieks and laughter of the outstanding mystery-comedy, "Drums of Death," presented by the Seniors Friday, April 17th and Saturday 18th. Paula (Rhea Horswell) and Amelia (Marilyn Burt), attractive modern girls of contrasting types; the gushing Eugenia (Mary Ellen Peterson); and Mrs. Gillette (Eyvonna Jensen) arrived at midnight at the half-ruined mansion in the desolate lagoon. They had been summoned by a telegram which they quickly discovered was false, the discovery came too late for them to escape from the place where weird forces and malign people threatened their very lives. Bailey, the relative of most of them, had disappeared. They questioned the others, the half-mad housekeeper (Janice Hudson), the octoroon girl (Janice Thorson), whose strange trances frightened them half out of their wits, the surly Haitian Negro (Harry Helgason) and Harley (Donald Looft), whom they scarcely knew whether to trust or fear the most of all. A prosperous medical specialist (Harlan Kinnander) arrived on the scene and further complicated the mystery. They struggled to solve the mystery of the place, the cabinet that was death to open, the hooded figure that appeared from time to time, the ghost that creeped from the shadows, the monster that lurked and threatened-- and back of all the insistent, dull, throbbing signal of the mysterious drums. Yet always, to break the tension, there was the crackle of laughter at the absurdities of the sheriff (Jean O'Neill) and the saucy Amelia, and there was the warmth and glow of the romance that developed in spite of the sunless terror of the place.

"almost summer"



October 24th and 25th was "Almost Summer" this year, according to the Junior class. This three act comedy starred the Jones family, Paul (Bob Schwartz), Mrs. Jones (Joy Place), Mr. Jones (Bob Peterson), Junior (Jack Schultz), and Mary (Betty Redhead), and Jane (Jane Cheever), Jack (Jerry Laffey), Mr. Smudgely (Bernard Verbrugge), Anna (Karon Questad), and Lilah (Marie Sandt). Paul is a senior in high school, who is having troubles with his semester exams. He needs a ninety-five in history to bring his average up to passing. If he fails to get a ninety-five, his grades will be too low to permit him to enter the university in the fall. Jack, who is Paul's friend, plans to steal the answers to the exam with Kramer, an enemy of Paul's. Paul's girl friend, Jane, and his parents urged Paul to study for the exam. Mary, who is Jack's girl friend, and Junior help to complicate matters for Paul. Mr. Smudgely, the stern school principal, doesn't make life easier for Paul. During the play Anna, the maid, keeps house for the Jones's. Junior, although he hates to admit it, has a heart throb in the person of Lilah Johnson. After much difficulty and many heartbreaks, Paul passes the test with a ninety-five, thus making everyone very happy.

We are very happy to be going into High School next year but we are sad about leaving Junior High. We will never forget the first day we came into Junior High. We were all scared. We will all probably be just as scared next year when we go into High School. Everyone is hoping we will like High School and it will like us. We have had a swell time this year, and will always remember our good old Junior High School days.
